DIALOGUE BETWEEN TWO BOYS, ON BOSTON COMMON.

Jim.

Robert.

Halloo, Jim! Where did you get that splendid suit of clothes you have on?

Jim.—Why, Robert, I guess you have 'nt heard of the new place for Boys' Clothing, kept by Mr. Carnes, at Nos. 39 & 41 Ann Street, between Merchants' Row and Blackstone Street, where all kinds of Boys' Garments are kept?

Robert.—O, yes! come to think of it, Billy Clapp told me of the place the other day, and said that Carnes cut his Spring-Bottom Pants to fit better than any pair he ever had made, and that the price was lower than he had ever paid before. I think he must get up good Clothing, for that Jacket you have on fits beautifully, and what a fine buttonhole there is in it! How glossy the cloth looks!

Jim.—Father says he has tried the tailors a good many times, but never has been able to get a suit for me that he liked so well, and mother was so much pleased, that she took little William to the store and had him measured for a Polka Jacket and two pairs of Pants.

Robert.—There comes father. I'll run and tell him to have a suit made for me just like yours.

In soliciting the patronage of those who are desirous to obtain

BOYS, CLOTHING,

of any description whatever, the Proprietor would take the liberty to state that he has facilities for manufacturing, that will enable him to meet the wants of all that may favor him with a call. Having secured the services of one long experienced in the manufacture of Children's Garments, in New York City, he is prepared to make to order, in the most tasteful and genteel styles, such articles of Clothing as are adapted to the smallest boys.

The Cutting Department will be constantly supplied with experienced Cutters, in getting up as good Clothing as can be obtained in any other Establishment in New England.

The public are invited to call and examine the large stock on hand, and to make a comparison with the Clothing manufactured elsewhere, both as regards Quality, Price and Cutting.
